

Samuel J. Alai, Mayor

April 28th, 2026

Dear Resident:

This letter is to inform you the City of Broadview Heights has started participation in the Heritage Home Programsm (HHP) of the Cleveland Restoration Society (CRS). The program provides owners of homes over 50 years old with guidance on home improvement and maintenance projects.

The Heritage Home Programsm provides FREE, impartial, and independent Technical Assistance and advice. No product or service is being sold and there is no charge to the homeowner for this professional advice.

Technical Assistance includes:

- Site Visits to your home to assess projects and provide feedback
- Advice on repair, remodeling, and maintenance as well as architecturally compatible additions
- Assistance finding contractors and evaluation of contractor estimates
- Impartial product and service reviews
- Color consultations for exterior painting

When available, the Heritage Home Programsm offers financing for home improvement and maintenance projects for interior and exterior projects. Homeowners should view the website to see current offerings.

Additional information can be mailed by contacting the Heritage Home Program (216) 426-3116 or can be found online at www.heritagehomeprogram.org. Please join our free information session to learn about the Heritage Home Programsm resources now available!

In Person Presentation:

General Information Session – May 21st at 6:00pm

Brecksville Branch of the Cuyahoga County Library
9089 Brecksville Road, Brecksville, OH 44141

To register for any presentation, please visit their website or call the HHP staff at (216) 426-3116

If you are planning any home repair or maintenance projects, and your home is more than 50 years old, I hope you will look into taking advantage of this FREE program.

Sincerely,

Mayor Samuel J. Alai
Mayor of Broadview Heights
